

Hub

Life

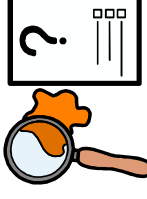

Science

week

special!!!

This week we celebrated British Science week. The theme this year was 'curiosity.' We had lots of fun with practical experiments investigating forces, friction, magnetism and matter. We made helicopters, raced malteasers, made objects move without touching them and blew up balloons using liquids. The children were curious! They asked insightful questions and had interesting theories which they put to the test in their practical experiments.

